American Music Therapy Association Membership Recognition Program 2025 Nomination Submission Form

Deadline: 11:59pm ET Sunday, February 22, 2026

2025 AMTA Member Recognition Nomination Form

The purpose of the member recognition program is to honor music therapists and advocates for their long-term efforts towards the development and growth of the profession of music therapy. The awards acknowledge individuals who have made significant contributions to the American Music Therapy Association, Inc. (as well as the former AAMT and NAMT associations) through education, service, clinical practice, and/or research.

NOMINATION PROCEDURES

These nominations are for the 2025 calendar year. The 2026 nominations will open later this year.

Selection shall be made by an Awards Committee comprised of people appointed by the President. The committee shall review nominations and recommend award recipients to the AMTA Board of Directors. No member of the Membership Recognition Award Committee or an employee/consultant of AMTA shall be eligible for the awards. Submit your nomination using this form no later than the specified deadline on the Nomination form.

Each year, nominations will be sought and considered. Nominees may be submitted by a nominator or through self-nomination. A person may be nominated in more than one area but may not receive more than one award for the given award year. Additionally, each award category may have from one to three recipients for the given award year. All AMTA awards are for members in good standing, with the exception of the Music Therapy Advocate Award, which is available to members or non-members/non-music therapists.

An award certificate and plaque with citation highlighting the accomplishments of the recipient of the award shall be presented at an Association event by the President of the Association or their designee. The name of the person receiving the award, a photograph, and appropriate citation shall be announced in an AMTA communication.

AWARD CATEGORIES

Research/Publications Award

The purpose of this award is to honor a member of the American Music Therapy Association who has contributed to the development of the profession through research, scholarly activity or creative products resulting in advanced knowledge and development in the profession of music therapy.

Selection Criteria:

1. Nominee is making or has made significant contribution to the body of knowledge of the profession of music therapy. This will be demonstrated in one of the following ways:
 1. Involvement in or completion of an outstanding research project(s).
 2. Involvement in scholarly work resulting in a textbook(s) or monograph(s) related to refinement of professional theory and/or practice.
 3. Involvement in creative activity resulting in the marketing of an activity kit(s), recording(s), and/or compositions(s) related to the development of the practice of music therapy.
2. Nominee shall have shared this knowledge and inspired others through both written communications (publications) and oral presentations (workshops, lectures, seminars, conference presentations).

Advocate of Music Therapy Award

The purpose of this award is to honor a person who is not a music therapist but who has contributed significantly to the field. This contribution could take the form of major and/or repeated public acknowledgement of the field of music therapy, major support through scholarships or other types of funding, or major volunteer time spent bettering the interests of the music therapy profession, or music therapy groups such as a specific region. These are examples of the kinds of contributions that could be cited in this award, but do not exclude other ways that an individual might have contributed.

Service Award

The purpose of this award is to recognize individual members of the American Music Therapy Association who have provided service to the Association and profession either through long term commitments or task limited activities, such as serving in national offices, as chairs of commissions, chairs of standing and ad hoc committees, and as members of the Board of Directors and/or the Assembly of Delegates.
